

INDEX

- Acton (Lord), 110
 Adams, John Quincy, 104
 Agriculture, see Foodstuffs for defense Aid to England, motives of various groups both for and against, 117-118
 Alfonso XIII of Spain, 68
 ALLPORT, GORDON W., Liabilities and Assets in Civilian Morale, 88-94
 AMERICA SEEN FROM ABROAD, Arthur Sweetser, 140-149
 American leadership, see United States leadership
 AMERICAN LEADERSHIP IN A HARSH AGE, Max
   Lerner, 117-124
 AMERICAN RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN, William Hard, 150-155
 Anglo-American co-operation needed in postwar reconstruction, 51, 150
 Appeasement policy, fallacy of, 4-5, 17, 137, 170
 Aristotle, 23, 55

 Bailey, Thomas A., quoted, 104 BASES OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY, THE,
   Herbert Wright, 99-108
 Bemis, Samuel Flagg, cited, 105
 Benda, Julien, quoted, 18
 BENEDICT, RUTH, Race Problems in America, 73-78
 Beneš, Eduard, 71
 Bergen, H. B., cited, 161
 Bergson, Henri, 4
 Bismarck, Otto von, 32
 Blaksley, J. H., quoted, 157
 Blum, Léon, 67, 68
 Boas, Franz, quoted, 73
 Bolívar, Simón, 133
 BONN, M. J., The New World Order, 163-177
   cited, 65
 Bonyng, Robert W., cited, 101
 Briand, Aristide, 133
 BROTEMARKLE, R. A., Development of Military Morale in a Democracy, 79-87
 BRUNAUER, ESTHER CAUKIN, Power Politics and Democracy, 109-116
 Bruner, J. S., cited, 90
 Bullitt, William C., 60
 Burnham, James, cited, 11
 Business factors in disease of, 33-35 factors in health of, 31-33
   politicalization of, 33-34

 CAN DEMOCRACY SURVIVE TOTAL WAR? Freda
   Utley, 9-15
 Cantril, Hadley, cited, 92
 Capitalists, attitude of toward war, 12

 Cavour, Camillo B. di, 32
 Chamberlain, Austen, 5
 Chamberlain, Joseph P., 5
 Chamberlain, Neville, 5, 12, 18, 59
 Chamberlin, E. M., cited, 162
 Characteristics of Americans, 89-94
 Churchill, Rt. Hon. Winston (Leonard Spencer), 10, 63, 71, 120, 150
 Class differences abolished in Europe by revolution, 5, 8, 22
 Columbus, Christopher, 131
 Coolidge, Calvin, 102
 Corbett, P. E., cited, 38
 CRISIS IN OUR FOREIGN TRADE, THE, Eugene
   P. Thomas, 45-51

 Daladier, Édouard, 59, 67
 Dante, 70
 Darwin, Charles, 56
 Das, Taraknath, cited, 104
 Defense elements economic warfare, 28
   fiscal policy, 28
   morale, 26-28
   physical means, 24-26
   See also Morale Defense industries plant expansion
     as affecting postwar economy, 25, 28-29
     necessity for, 25-26
   strikes in, justified, 20, 27
 Democracies believed incapable of quick and efficient decisions, 90
   deceived through fear of communism, 18-19 morale in, 88
   passivity of, toward totalitarianism, 4-5, 17-18
 Democracy and power politics, 109-116
   as a means of winning the war, 120
   as affected by the second World War, 9-11, 14, 61-62
   defined, 9
   ideals of, 126
   in Europe, supported by United States, 137-138 not doomed, 19-20, 57, 121-122 reason for defense of, 54, 57, 121 served by America's nonparticipation in second World War, 62-63
   totalitarian determination to extinguish, 17, 19, 111
 Dennis, Lawrence, 1, 2, 19
 De Valera, Eamon, 151
 DEVELOPMENT OF MILITARY MORALE IN A DEMOCRACY, R. A. Brotemarkle, 79-87

- Dickson, W. J., cited, 161
- Dictators
factors encouraging rise of, 63
weakness of, 54-56
- DRUCKER, PETER F., Influence of American Economic Policy, 135-139
- Eagleton, Clyde, 40
- ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF DEFENSE, Mordecai Ezekiel, 24-30
- Economic nationalism, see Nationalism
- ECONOMIC UNION AND ENDURING PEACE, Otto Tod Mallery, 125-134
- Economic union, international characteristics of, 126-127 contrasted with economic empire, 130-131 example of, 129
movements toward, 38-39, 115 organizational setup of, 132 possible groups for, 127-128, 153
steps toward, 128-129
United States leadership in, 129-130, 132-133
See also Federation of nations
- Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 121
quoted, 53
- EZEKIEL, MORDECAI, Economic Implications of of Defense, 24-30
cited, 38
quoted, 42, 43
- Factional discord within nations a recent phenomenon, 95-96
a threat to civilization, 98 psychological causes of, 96-98 sown by totalitarian states, 19, 20, 90-91, 97
methods of combating, 114
- Fascism
a revolutionary force, 4 misunderstood by conservatives, 4-5, 66-70 originally opposed government control in economic life, 173
See also Totalitarianism
- Federation of nations advantages of, 173
possible groups for, 173, 174-176
principles of, 173
See also Economic union, international
- Feuerbach, Konstantin, 3
- Financial policy of United States a blessing to Europe, 137-138
- FODOR, M. W., The Revolution Is On, 1-8
- Fodor, M. W., 2
- Foodstuffs for defense, 26
- Ford, Henry, 136
- Foreign investments develop international trade, 47
- Foreign policy of United States freedom of the seas, 105 helped Europe instead of harming it, 135-138
Monroe Doctrine, 104
nonintervention, 102-104
open-door policy, 104-105
peaceable, 99-102
re Asia, 107
re Latin America, 106-107
re world organization, 106 unchanged by political administrative changes, 99
weakness of, 112, 113
- Franco, Francisco, 5
- Frederick the Great, 56
- Freedom the keynote of United States foreign policy, 99
- Frost, L., cited, 160
- Gamelin, M. G., 67
- Gelber, Lionel, quoted, 110
- Genghis Khan, 55
- George V of England, 101
- Gerig, Benjamin, cited, 129
- Goebbels, Paul Joseph, 129, 153
- Gold-purchase policy, a help to European democracies, 138
- Gooch, Robert, quoted, 110
- Government control over economic life as affecting labor, 11-12 extension of, 11-12
Fascism originally opposed to, 173
- Gregory, Richard, cited, 157
- Halifax (Lord), 120
- HARD, WILLIAM, American Relations with Britain, 150-155
quoted, 129
- Harding, Warren G., 142
- Harvey, George, 146
quoted, 142
- Haushofer, Karl, quoted, 17-18
- Hay, John, 104
- Heiden, Konrad, quoted, 110
- HICKMAN, EMILY, History Views the Economic Outlook, 38-44
- Hilton, James, quoted, 114
- HISTORY VIEWS THE ECONOMIC OUTLOOK, Emily Hickman, 38-44
- Hitler, Adolf, 2, 3, 5, 8, 10, 20, 26, 34, 56, 57, 60, 61, 63, 68, 69, 70, 88, 93, 111, 112, 113, 117, 118, 120, 123, 137, 138, 150, 151, 152, 155
- Hölderlin, Johann C. F., 93
- HOW TO FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY, Norman Thomas, 58-64
- Hughes, Charles Evans, 102, 153
- Hull, Cordell, 107, 153
quoted, 127-128, 146-147
- Hunt, Bert L., cited, 101
- Huxley, Thomas, quoted, 54

Imperialism

- Axis features of, 164-166
- charged by Germans against English-speaking peoples, 154
- coercive or co-operative, 170-171
- tendency toward, in United States, 58-59
- See also* Power, political

Industrial psychology, functions of, 156-162*INFLUENCE OF AMERICAN ECONOMIC POLICY, Peter F. Drucker, 135-139*Internal discord, see Factional discord*International investments, see Foreign investments*International trade

- necessity for, 45-46
- of Latin American countries, 48, 50
- totalitarian barter system of, 51, 168
- United States position in, 138-139

Investments, see Foreign investments*Isolation

- as a United States policy, 144-146
- trend away from, 146-147

Jackson, Andrew, 129

Jefferson, Thomas, 105

quoted, 55, 103, 104

Jinnah, M. A., 151

John, King of England, 55

Kipling, Rudyard, 59

Knapp, George L., quoted, 56

Kornhauser, A. W., cited, 161

Labor

- as affected by government control, 11-12
- British, patriotism of, 10
- See also* Strikes in defense industries

Labor unions

- as affecting immigrants, 77-78
- workers' attitudes toward, 162

Lafayette, de (Marquis), 3

Latin America

- advantages of aid to, 46-49
- as a region for federation, 175-176
- industrialization of, 48-49
- international trade of, 48, 50
- United States policy toward, 104, 106-107
- importance of, 176

League of Nations

- not dead, 148
- United States reversal of attitude regarding, 141-144, 146-147

Leiserson, W. M., quoted, 77-78

Lenin, Nikolay, 11

LEENER, MAX, American Leadership in a Harsh Age, 117-124

cited, 60, 61, 62

LIABILITIES AND ASSETS IN CIVILIAN MORALE, Gordon W. Allport, 88-94

Lincoln, Abraham, 21

Lindbergh, Anne, 1, 2, 8

Linlithgow, Marquess of, 151

Living standards, see Standards of living

Locke, John, 54

Louis, Joe, 130

Luce, Henry, 58, 59

quoted, 110

Lvov, George (Prince), 3

Macaulay, Thomas B. (Baron Macaulay of Rothley), quoted, 56

MacDonald, J. Ramsay, 68

Machiavelli, Niccolò di Bernardo, 110, 119

Mair, George, quoted, 151

MALLERY, OTTO TOD, Economic Union and Enduring Peace, 125-134

Malloy, William M., cited, 102, 103

Marshall, Thomas R., 52

Marx, Karl, 6, 66, 68

Matteotti, Giacomo, 5, 66

Metternich, von (Prince), 5

Migration, organized, a European need, 139

Miller, Hunter, cited, 100, 103

Minorities in United States

desire of, for Americanization, 76-77

Mirabeau, de (Count), 3

Monroe, James, 104

Monroe Doctrine, 104

Montaigne, Michel E. de, quoted, 11

Moore, John Bassett

cited, 100, 102, 104, 105

quoted, 99, 103

Morale

as related to living conditions, 26-28, 114-115 civilian, liabilities and assets in, 89-94 crises develop latent forces, 93-94, 119

defined, 79-80, 88-89

democratic and totalitarian compared, 91-92

emotionalism and, 88-89, 91

in building a world order, 114-115

in United States, 61-62

factors affecting adversely, 89-91 factors affecting favorably, 91-94

military morale

establishment of, 83-86

factors affecting, 81-83

responsibility for, 86-87

patterns of, 81

stability of, 80

Morris, William, quoted, 14-15

Münsterberg, H., cited, 157

Murray, Philip, 120

Mussolini, Benito, 2, 4, 5, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 112

Napoleon I, 1, 2, 3, 5, 55, 164

National sovereignty

must be relinquished, 34, 42, 123

- overemphasized in the United States, 41
sundered by governments still in power, 95
- National unity
emerging in United States, 92
lack of, 95-96
See also Factional discord within nations
- Nationalism
breakdown of, 95-98
evils of, 38, 40, 42
means of overcoming, 41-42
- NEW WORLD ORDER, THE, M. J. Bonn, 163-177
- New world order democratic forms of, 115, 123 economic aspects of, 50-51 emerging from present war, 12-15, 21-23
necessity for, 42-44
planned by Axis Powers, 166-171 regional groupings in, suggested, 173-176 since the first World War, 171-172 uncertain character of, 176-177
United States leadership in, 115-116
- Newton, Isaac, 56
- Nielsen, Fred K., cited, 101
- Open-door policy, 104-105
- PARADOXICAL ASPECTS OF THE PRESENT-DAY
CRISIS, THE, Gregory Zilboorg, 95-98
- Patriotism, deterioration of, 95-96
- Peace settlement of 1919
dominated by American ideals, 141 generosity of, 141
sound principles of, 163
- Planning for a new world order, 21-22, 50-51 for postwar prosperity, 29, 46, 139 international, necessity for, 172-173 is a socialistic policy, 167-168
- Plato, 93
- Postwar prospects
Anglo-American leadership in peace settlement, 150-155 for business and industry, 29, 36-37 political and economic, 50-51, 147-148
See also New world order
- Power, political democratic use of, 110-112, 133-134 elements in, 112-115
increasing emphasis on, in United States, 109-110
See also Imperialism
- POWER POLITICS AND DEMOCRACY, Esther Caukin Brunauer, 109-116
- Prasad, Rajendra, 151
- Productivity of workers
comparative, 156
psychological factors in, 159-161
- Proudhon, Pierre Joseph, 4
- Public opinion re United States participation in the present war, 117-118
- RACE PROBLEMS IN AMERICA, Ruth Benedict, 73-78
- Race problems in the United States handicaps to solution of, 74 immigrants' desire for Americanization, 76-77 possible cross-cultural activities, 77-78 school programs for amalgamation, 75 unsolved, 62
- Racial superiority
denied, 73-74, 95
Nazi theory of, 165-166
- Ralston, Jackson H., cited, 101
- Reed, David A., quoted, 106
- Regional federation, see Economic union, international; Federation of nations
- Reuther, Walter, 120
- Revolution
as related to war, 1
counterrevolution defined, 5 involvement in, not inevitable, 1-2, 8, 16 nature of, 2
popular misunderstanding of, 5-6, 17 present, 3-4
aims of, 7
See also War
- REVOLUTION IS ON, THE, M. W. Fodor, 1-8
- Reynaud, Paul, 67
- Riehl, Walther, 6
- Robespierre, Maximilien de, 3
- ROBINSON, LELAND REX, What Price Demobilization? 31-37
- Roethlisberger, F. J., cited, 161
- Rogers, Will, 151
- ROLE OF INDUSTRIAL PSYCHOLOGY IN DEFENDING THE FUTURE OF AMERICA, THE, Morris S. Viteles, 156-162
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 61, 99, 144, 150, 153
quoted, 147
- Root, Elihu, 102
- Rugg, D., cited, 92
- Rundquist, E. A., cited, 88
- Saint-Just, Louis de, 3
- Schacht, Hjalmar, 51
- Schurz, Carl, 56
- Scott, James Brown, cited, 101, 102
- SENDER, TONI, We Must Face the Issues, 16-23
- SFORZA, CARLO, The Totalitarian War and the Fate of Democracy, 65-72
- Sforza, Carlo, 71
- Shipping, war losses in, 45
- Sieyès, Emmanuel Joseph (Abbé Sieyès), 3
- Sino-Japanese conflict, possibilities of victory in, 174
- Sletto, R. F., cited, 88

- Sorel, Georges, 4, 6
- Spengler, Oswald, 121
- Stalin, Joseph, 5, 12, 14, 60, 61
  - quoted, 156
- Stamp, Josiah, 36
- Standards of living
  - a test of any civilization, 156
  - as affecting morale, 26-28
  - unwillingness to reduce, in United States, 90
- Stock, F. G. L., cited, 160
- Strikes in defense industries, justified, 20, 27
  - See also Labor; Labor unions
- Strong, Edward K., Jr., quoted, 159
- Strong, William, 101
- Suñer, Serano, 5
- SWEETSER, ARTHUR, America Seen From Abroad, 140-149
- Swing, Raymond Gram, 3
  - quoted, 2
- Taft, William Howard, 102, 141
- Teleki, Paul, 70
- Thales, 55
- THOMAS, EUGENE P., The Crisis in Our Foreign Trade, 45-51
- THOMAS, NORMAN, How to Fight for Democracy, 58-64
  - cited, 66
- Thompson, Dorothy, 58, 59
  - quoted, 2
- THOMPSON, HUSTON, Why Fight for Democracy? 52-57
  - cited, 59
- Thompson, Huston, 132
- Thyssen, Fritz, 6
- Totalitarian methods
  - adaptation of propaganda, 70-71
  - barter system of trade, leading to political domination, 51
  - deception, 69
  - morale offensive, 19, 20, 88, 90-91, 97
  - sowing internal disunity in other nations, 19, 20, 90-91, 97
  - methods of combating, 114
  - warning against, 66-71
- TOTALITARIAN WAR AND THE FATE OF DEMOCRACY, THE, Carlo Sforza, 65-72
- Totalitarianism
  - ancient and modern compared, 166-167
  - built upon social discontent, 4, 16-17
  - cannot coexist with democracy, 17, 19, 111
  - philosophy of, 17
  - regarded as bulwark against communism, 18-19, 68
  - world-wide aims of, 17-18, 19
  - See also Fascism
- Trade barriers
  - against Latin America, 49-50
  - evils of, 125, 152-153
  - United States, have not harmed Europe, 135-137
- Trade unions, see Labor unions
- Trotsky, Leon, 61
- Tullis, H. H., cited, 156
- Turati, Augusto, 66, 68
- United States leadership in world affairs
  - achieved in first World War, 140-141
  - in economic union, 129-130, 132-134
  - in organized migration, 139
  - must be democratic leadership, 122-123
  - necessitated by present crisis, 147-149
  - not exercised, 146
  - possibility of, 121-122
  - responsibility for, 115-116, 125
  - to be shared with British in next peace settlement, 150-155
- United States participation in present war
  - attitudes of various groups both for and against, 117-118
  - effects of, 61-62
  - effects of nonparticipation, 62-63, 64
  - likelihood of, 59-60
  - partially beyond our control, 63
  - plea for referendum on, 63-64
- United States responsibility for European collapse
  - affirmed, 143-146
  - denied, 135-138
- UTLEY, FREDA, Can Democracy Survive Total War? 9-15
- VITELES, MORRIS S., The Role of Industrial Psychology in Defending the Future of America, 156-162
- Wallace, Henry A., 130
- War
  - a result of nationalism, 40, 42
  - all-embracing character of, 40-41
  - attitude of capitalists toward, 12
  - changed character of, 95, 97
  - leads to regimentation, 12
  - motives for, 58-59
  - See also Revolution; World War, second
- War aims
  - frustration of Nazi domination most important, 169-171
  - of Axis Powers, 164
  - statement of, by England and United States, needed, 120-121
- War economy
  - German, 168-169
  - German and British compared, 9-10
  - United States finance, 35-36
- Washington, George, 104
- WE MUST FACE THE ISSUES, Toni Sender, 16-23
- Weaver, C. H., cited, 129

- WHAT PRICE DEMOBILIZATION? Leland Rex Robinson, 31-37
- Whitehead, T. N., cited, 161; quoted, 160
- WHY FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY? Huston Thompson, 52-57
- Wickard, Claude R., 26
- Wickersham, George W., 141
- William II of Germany, 5, 55, 57, 150
- Williams, F. W., cited, 92
- Willkie, Wendell, quoted, 59, 60
- Wilson, Charles E., quoted, 29
- Wilson, Woodrow, 105, 116, 125, 132, 133, 141, 153, 171, 175
quoted, 54, 57
- Wolfe, Thomas, 31
- World War, second aftermath of, 62, 148
as affecting democracy, 14, 61-62 as affecting freedom of British people, 9-10 as affecting social structure of England, 7-8, 22 possibilities of victory in, 60-61, 123, 150
Yugoslav heroism in, 69-70
See also United States participation in present war
- WRIGHT, HERBERT, The Bases of American Foreign Policy, 99-108
cited, 102, 103, 105
- Wyatt, S., cited, 160
- ZILBOORG, GREGORY, The Paradoxical Aspects of the Present-Day Crisis, 95-98

10
8,

-

an cts